

POLS 3045: Reading Assignment #9

DUE: Monday, March 15, at the Start of Class

Formatting Guidelines: All written work in this class should follow the following formatting guidelines:

- Papers should be word processed only: No pen, pencil, etc., marks should be on the paper;
- Use only Times New Roman, 12 point font;
- If more than 1 page, pages should be numbered;
- Text should be double spaced;
- Papers should be stapled (not paper clipped, no special folders, etc.).

Finally, and Perhaps Most Important: The responses to these questions should be in your own words. You may NOT copy, quote, or in any other way use the author's words.

LM, Chapter 16, “It’s Better than Being Informed”

1. Why do authors suggest that youth like getting their news from The Daily Show?

WEB, Baumgartner & Morris, “Jon Stewart Comes to Class”

2. What, in brief, were the major findings of the authors about the rel between political humor and learning?